

Summary of Indictment

Gu, the head of Changzhi Township, Pingtung County, wrote off false documents during his term of office. He was suspected of using his position to defraud property and forge documents. After the prosecutor of our office directed the investigation team of the southern area of AAC, the Pingtung County Investigation Station of Investigation Bureau of Ministry of Justice to investigate the case, the investigation was concluded and a public prosecution was filed.

Gu has served as the head of Changzhi Township in Pingtung County since December 2018 and has been re-elected until now. He has comprehensively managed the township administration and commanded and supervised the departments and offices of the township. He also audited purchase requisitions, write-offs, and appropriation business. Zhang was an office member of finance and banking department of the township, and served as the special assistant to the township head from January 2020 to March 2021, handling matters assigned by the township head and writing off funds. Both of them know that the public funds included in the annual budget for general affairs, project management and special expenses are limited to official business use, and if used for business reception or contact, the receipts for the items and the amount that are truthfully issued are needed to write off. They also know that they did not actually go to restaurants such as Guo○ on May 24, May 26, and December 13 in 2020, and that Gu consumed in Jing○ restaurant on January 7, 2021 was for his father's birthday party, knowing that Gu's lawyer's fees, the expenses of Zhang Huimei's New Year's Eve concert souvenirs and family birthday parties were all private. Gu instructed Zhang to use the blank receipts to make false write-offs, and indicated that the township head paid in advance, so that the unknowing township office accountants, cashiers and related personnel in charge fell into mistakes after the formal review, and mistakenly believed that Gu's expenses were for public purpose. After making the disbursement subpoena and the public treasury check of Changzhi Township Office, Gu personally reviewed and verified to complete the appropriation procedure, and then allocated the amount to the financial account of Gu. A total of more than 58,000 yuan of public funds were falsely written off. In addition, Gu and Zhang failed to obtain receipts for other business trips or expenses of red and white envelopes, and wrote off a total of about 105,000 yuan with false consumption content receipts.

After being investigated by the prosecutor, Gu and Zhang were jointly involved in the crime of taking advantage of job opportunities to defraud property in Subparagraph 2 of Paragraph 1 of Article 5 of Anti-Corruption Act

, the Article 214 of the Criminal Law of making public servants publish false documents, and were prosecuted by law.
